

AN ACTIVIST ARCHIVES

Please join us
as the Sophia Smith
Collection and the Smith
Association of Class Activists proudly present

Report from the Front Lines: Gender, Sexuality and Immigration Reform

Wednesday April 16th, 2014
7:30 pm, Weinstein Auditorium,
Smith College

Questions or scheduling requests:
eamanna@smith.edu

Marielena Hincapié of the National Immigration Law Center and Miriam Yeung of the National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum consider the uses and abuses of history and memory and the role of gender in today's struggles around citizenship status and the sustainability of immigrant communities, in conversation with Sophia Smith Collection Activist in Residence, Sara K. Gould.

The evening will kick off with Spitfire, Smith's Spoken Word Poetry Team, exploring themes of race, feminism, activism, and immigration.

For more information: <http://www.smith.edu/libraries/libs/ssc/news/news.html>